The 7 Day Cycle of Prayer

Note: The 7-Day Cycle of Prayer is meant for meditative use by individuals. It associates a prayer concern with each day of the week and allows reflection on any or all of the “Great Sevens” – the seven deadly sins, the seven gifts of the Spirit, the seven corporal works of mercy and the seven spiritual works of mercy.

7 Days	Prayer Cycle	7 Deadly Sins	7 Gifts of the Spirit	7 Corporal Works of Mercy	7 Spiritual Works of Mercy
Sunday	Thanksgiving	Pride	Wisdom	Feed the Hungry	Admonish Sinners
Monday	Sick/Needy	Anger	Understanding	Give Drink to the Thirsty	Instruct the Ignorant
Tuesday	Cities/Communities	Envy	Counsel	Clothe the Naked	Counsel the Doubtful
Wednesday	Families/Households	Covetousness	Fortitude	Harbor the Harborless	Pray for the Salvation of Your Neighbor
Thursday	Our Church & All Churches	Gluttony	Knowledge	Visit the Sick	Comfort the Sorrowful
Friday	Mission & Missionaries	Lust	Godliness	Visit the Imprisoned	Bear Wrongs Patiently

Dear Partners in the Spirit's Life and Work,

I have always imagined Paul's admonition to "be filled with the Spirit" as if the Spirit is a liquid; even going so far as occasionally saying that we need to be constantly filled and refilled because we leak. While the Spirit is likened to a spring of living water (for example, John 4 and 7), an article in Christianity Today by Andrew Wilson (see July/August 2019 edition) pointed out that Paul's imagination (as a Jew and a Greek-speaker) would have thought of the Spirit as breath and wind instead of water. The filling, then, would be the filling of a sail more than the filling of a jug. Even the image of the Spirit as water points to something beyond our control; something that is constantly renewed, as opposed to something stored up (see Jeremiah 2:13).

This shift in metaphor has some profound implications. First, we don't have the Spirit in our possession. It's impossible to bottle wind. Jesus empowers us dynamically, moment by moment. He doesn't "charge our battery" with the Spirit, so that we have some sort of residual power. He gives us what we need to move us forward exactly when we need it.

Secondly, we need constant filling, not just because we are in constant need of refreshment (see 1 Corinthians 12:13), but because we constantly depend on the Spirit's power. We pray for renewed filling because left to ourselves we go nowhere. A sailboat without its sails up might drift with the current. But, that's not what sailboats are for.

Finally, spiritual disciplines, in this metaphor, allow us to repair and, then, hoist our sails. Daily prayer, weekly Eucharist, confession, solitude, spiritual direction, rest, play, silence, fellowship, etc. are all ways that the Lord restores us, and prepares us. They are also ways that we hoist our sails and make ourselves available to the Spirit for ministry and mission.

As you incorporate this Calendar into your prayers, hoist your own sails to be filled with the Spirit, and pray that your partners in the Gospel throughout the Diocese (and the world) will likewise be filled with the Spirit.

With you in God's Wind,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jim" with a small cross symbol to its left.
